Commissioner for Patents

On May 16, 2006 the office prepared a communication, informing applicant that an IDS was received in the instant application and it was placed in the application file but not considered.

It was later discovered that the IDS in question was placed in the instant application in error.

The applicant is hereby informed that IDS in question has been removed from the instant application file. Applicant should disregard the statements made in the communication mailed May 16, 2006 because it is clear that no IDS was submitted for this application. Examiner would like to thank Ms. Hargitt for pointing out this oversight on the part of the office.
